Dear Anna:

I received a box of assorted brochures from Williamsburg, and I had a letter from Jeanne telling me that they were being sent. She wants me to write to everybody and ask for suggestions for a project and a place for the 1962 meeting. I was wondering if the reservation forms were available now. If so, I could enclose them also.

I am enclosing another membership list.

Be sure to let me know when you need money. I can send you a blank check or two any time.

Best wishes,
